Newspaper Troubles.

The manager of the Chinese Times is locked up for hitting the editor of the said paper on his head with a hammer. The editor objected and claims that the assault was caused because he had nothing to write about. The case of our esteemed contemporary will have the sympathy of all newspaper writers. We now expect Ballentyne to hit Farrington, and we are waiting to see Finney club Logan. We will endeavor to stand the ordeal of Hoogs smashing Towse, but God save us when Testa comes around our way. The Chinese newspaper men are setting a bad example.

Beautiful.

Miss Elsie Adair did not have a very large attendance last evening. Those who were there enjoyed the performance of the talented artists.

Miss Adair and Mr. Emmett, ably assisted by Miss Jardine, and Mr. Vanderlip kept the audience in a good humor during the evening. Only two more performances will be rendered and then perhaps Honolulu will not see Adair for many months, or a year. If a ever, then for never, farewell the well, Elsie Adair. We will remember you if, on your farewell performance you will cause to be sung the pathetic ballad of "Robin Adair."

LUCY

Another Side of the Story and One That Can Be Verified.

Considerable sympathy has been shown here for "Lucy," or as her real name is Chang Tai Hi, through sensational misrepresentations by the local press, and especially by the A. P. A. P. C. A.

Hitherto, THE INDEPENDENT has paid but little attention to the matter, except to keep watch that the sympathies of the community should not be misdirected. In its discretion THE INDEPENDENT has been justified by the results.

It will be of interest to our readers to learn that the adulteress was born in the town of Shasta, Siskiyou county, Cal. in 1870, or thereabouts of Chinese parents. Her father was a very prominent resident there 30 years ago, and the Chinese mother equally well-known. California pioneers well remember them, for with celestial cuteness and the welcome accorded to Chinese in those days by Californians, and before the advent of Denis Kearny, the family became opulent and had important influence in the councils of the six companies; they belonging to the influential See Yup combination.

But to return to Chang Tai Hee, "Lucy." Her father, who lived in California for 30 years is still alive and resides in Shasta.

Until she met the actor Ah Him, of the Jackson St. Theatre, San Francisco, now staying at the Thow Choy house on Aala lane in this city and became infatuated with him she was Chinese to all intents and purposes and wore Chinese garments and generally demeaned herself as a decorous Chinese matron should.

On July 22d our young lady decided to leave her husband and come to the Paradise of the Pacific with the actor. She arranged matters very nicely. The mother of the husband, curiously enough of almost the same name as the adulteress, found that she had eloped taking with her jewelry presented to her by her husband and all her belongings and furthermore that she had for the first time procured American garments, the same as she appeared in here.

Wong Pin Ott, called by the P. C. A. as Wong Tuck, has given THE INDEPENDENT's reporter the following information in regard to the woman: He himself is a Californian pioneer and a fluent English talker. He belongs to a very influential firm and is a prominent member of the See Yup Company.

He states that he has known the family for many years and that the husband is a good man, did not ill-treat his wife and did not smoke opium. He, in fact, denies all the allegations claimed to have been made by the wife against her husband. He claims that it is untrue that the husband ever suggested that he should be the purchaser of the woman for a $1000 or any other sum. He was a faithful and affectionate husband and mourns the loss of his wife very much. All were surprised when the wife told the old woman that she intended to run away with Ah Him, (alias Ah Chu of the P. C. A.) They did not believe it, so she played the trick upon them.

When she had skipped the See Yup Co., of the six companies, called a meeting and decided that Wong Pin Ott (the P. C. A.'s Wong Tuck), owing to his intimate knowledge of the facts and his grasp of the English language, should be their delegate to induce the erring woman to return home without any scandal.

Our local press prevented this and almost compelled the poor girl to attempt to commit suicide.

He, Wong Tuck, denies most emphatically that death or any punishment is in store for her should she return to her home, the husband is too affectionate and the See Yup Company too powerful to permit any infraction of American laws. If the woman is willing to repent and conquer her infatuation for the actor, all will be well.

She has promised him that she is willing to return to the arms and couch of her husband, but the indiscreet kindness of misguided persons cause her to vacillate in her intentions.

After listening to Mr. Wong Ping THE INDEPENDENT reporter called upon Mr. Goo Kim, the Chinese Commercial Agent. From him it was ascertained that the woman had been taken before the Chinese Benevolent Society, with Mr. Goo Kim, Wong Kwai, Wong Wa Foy and others of our most prominent and catholic Chinese citizens present, and was granted a thorough investigation.

The result of this investigation was that Wong Pin's credentials were found to be satisfactory; that the published statements connecting him with sinister designs were false and that the adulteress, after explaining her unfortunate infatuation for the actor, repented and expressed her willingness to return to San Francisco.

Mr. Goo Kim called on Minister of Foreign Affairs H. E. Cooper and discussed the peculiar diplomatic conditions arising out of the delicate position, and the two great diplomats have agreeably settled the situation. As Hawaii has no treaty with China there may be interesting developments bye and bye, but in the meantime husband and wife will be reunited.

In conversation with Wong Wa Foy this morning he substantiated the forthgiven facts.

"Is this a 16 to 1 city?" asked our San Francisco visitor. "It is on Sunday," answered the kamaaina. "On Sunday?" "Yes. Sixteen go fishing for drinks to one going to church. We have to get our Sunday supplies on Saturday from Jim Dodd."

"Can't you people sit closer together there?" shouted one of Paine's polite buss driver. "No, we can't," replied the man with a lady companion; "We've been married for six months and are not running a Tribune tandem."

"How full our pastor was yesterday morning—Of his subject I mean." "Yes, but how slow he was in emptying himself. He wanted a good dose of Pabst Milwaukee beer to invigorate his strength and accelerate his delivery."

W. W. DIMOND'S

We've said something, once or twice about the beauties of the dining table when properly dressed with appropriate china and glassware. Everything depends upon the quality and artistic design.

You have had China news galore now for glassware. You've lived half your life with the impression that cut glass is too high priced an article for you to possess. You are wrong. We are selling to-day genuine cut glass salt cellars, individual, in different designs, for two bits each; they've sold in other stores in Honolulu as high as $2. It's the way we buy. We have, also, sets consisting of a tray, one pepper and one salt, silver tops $2. You never heard of them being sold anywhere for less than $10. You never saw them before in Honolulu. Our stock goes from these small pieces to the heavier and larger dishes which sell at $150.

In cheap tumblers we offer a thorough finished article at 50 cents a dozen and in case you might wish to use them for preserve glasses, we throw in a tin top for each. We have an engraved decanter, holds a quart, 35 cents, a pressed glass pickle or olive dish for 10 cents, a berry set, 7 pieces, 75 cents.

The average man does not know how much glass is used in the household. We do, and we have 150 patterns of glasses to select from. In lamp chimneys we have all sorts. No. 1 A, three for a quarter; No. 2, B, ten cents each.
